FROM

Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B. Nagappa, Esq., Bar-at-Law,
Secretary to Government,
Local & Legislative Departments,
B A N G A L O R E.

SIR,

I am directed to invite reference to Rule of Practice No.5 (Criminal Side) dated the 12th June 1878 laying down forms for keeping the Registers in Criminal Courts and to the subsequent amendments thereto, and to state as follows :--

Adverting to Register No.1 (Criminal), under Circular letter No.174 dated the 24th February 1908 (Vide General Rules and Orders -- criminal --, Volume II, page 18), the dates of all adjournments have to be entered under column 10; but this, I am to observe, is not a logical arrangement as the column is headed "date of institution" and the proper column for entering the dates of adjournments would be column 14. But in column 14, as at present headed, it is only the number of adjournments and not the dates that have to be entered. I am to point out that no object is served by merely noting the number of adjournments, and that the object of a ~~clear~~ closer check being exercised by Inspecting Officers would better be attained if the dates of all adjournments are entered in that column, the number of adjournments being easily calculated therefrom.

Adverting to Registers Nos.II (Summary cases), III (Mis. cases and IIIA (Revision Cases), V (Sessions cases), VI (Appeals) and VI.A. (Mis. Appeals), I am to observe that at present there is no column showing the dates of adjournments with the result that Inspecting Officers are not in a position to scrutinise any undue delay in the disposal of such cases, and that it is necessary that suitable columns should be opened to show the dates of adjournments as in the case of Register No.I.

In these circumstances, I am to request the favour of sanction for the accompanying addendum et corrigendum to the said Rule of Practice.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

The Chief Court directs that :--

(1) in supersession of the instructions contained in Circular Letter No.174, dated the 24th February 1908, in Register No.I Column 14, the word 'Number' be altered into 'Dates';

(2) in Register No.II, a new column 9 'Dates of adjournments' be opened and the present columns 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 re-numbered as 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 respectively;

and that the dates of all adjournments had in respect of the cases entered in these Registers be noted under column 'Dates of adjournments' of the respective registers.
